

ELDER/VULNERABLE ADULT ABUSE PREVENTION PUBLIC AWARENESS FACT SHEET

- Each year in the United States, 1 to 2 million reports of elderly and vulnerable adult abuse are made; however, the real number of victims is even higher because most cases are not reported.
- It is estimated that only 1 in 14 cases of elderly and vulnerable adult abuse is reported.
- The Maryland Attorney General's Office, Medicaid Fraud Control Unit, investigates and prosecutes incidents of abuse and neglect of vulnerable persons residing in facilities which receive Medicaid funds and in assisted living facilities. Every year, the Medicaid Fraud Control Unit receives between 200 and 500 referrals regarding abuse and neglect of vulnerable persons. Each referral is reviewed and either investigated for criminal prosecution or referred to the appropriate regulatory agency. The Medicaid Fraud Control Unit also provides education and outreach to providers on how to prevent abuse and neglect as well as what to do if abuse or neglect occurs at a facility. For more information on protecting seniors from abuse and neglect, contact the Medicaid Fraud Control Unit at 410-576-6521 or at MedicaidFraud@oag.state.md.us.
- The Maryland Department of Aging, Long Term Care Ombudsman Program, receives, investigates, and resolves complaints made by or on behalf of long term care residents. Of the 2,332 complaints investigated by the Ombudsman Program in FY2012, 136 of the investigated reports were alleged resident abuse cases. For more information about programs and services for seniors, call the Maryland Department of Aging at 410-767-1100, toll-free 1-800-243-3425, or on the web at www.aging.maryland.gov.
- The Maryland Department of Health and Mental Hygiene, Office of Health Care Quality, receives allegations of abuse regarding residents/patients in all licensed and/or federally certified facilities. In 2012, the Office of Health Care Quality received approximately 907 reports of alleged vulnerable adult abuse. For more information about Office of Health Care Quality programs, please call 410-402-8108, toll-free 1-877-402-8219, or on the web at www.dhmh.maryland.gov/ohcq.
- The Maryland Department of Human Resources, Office of Adult Services, Adult Protective Services Program, investigates allegations of adult abuse, neglect, self-neglect, or exploitation of an elderly or disabled vulnerable adult in a community-based setting. In FY 2012, the Adult Protective Services Program received approximately 6,801 reports of abuse, neglect, self-neglect and exploitation of vulnerable adults aged 18 years of age and older. Of these cases, 1,932 involved continuing Adult Protective Services case management services to monitor on-going risk factors. For more information about adult abuse, neglect or exploitation, contact the Maryland Department of Human Resources at 410-767-7000, toll-free 1-800-917-7383, or on the web at www.dhr.maryland.gov.
